"Look to the classmate on the left . . . and the classmate on the right . . . Can you actually believe some of you will be seeing each other for the last time?"

Words we as freshmen had long hoped to hear, but since we still had four years to go, it seemed like it would be an eternity.

Scared. Nervous. Anxious. But eager to succeed. And that we did. We got into the school spirit by playing on athletic teams, electing class officers, acting and singing in the musical, and becoming a part of all the other activities freshmen are willing to do to meet people and be accepted.

Sophomore year arrived sooner than we could have ever expected and pushed us over into the category of "real high school students". Along with a new principal, we had a new feeling of self-respect. The entire school recognized us as the most spirited when we met the seniors' challenge for the Halloween dress-up and won the school spirit award. Buying class rings, selling Christmas candy canes, sitting through long hours of driver's ed, and going to the water slides for our sophomore class trip highlighted our second year.

Guidance warned us once again, "Junior year is the most important and serious of all." PSAT's, SAT's, and college fairs forced us to look ahead when we were content with the present. It was tedious and time consuming, but there was a lighter side . . .

By passing the long awaited test for our driver's license, we were given the most precious gift of all — freedom. Mandarin House, Town Spa, and Crescent Ridge would never be the same. We discovered the school library could be used for more than just research. Thanks, Chief, for all those passes. Spring fever settled in earlier than usual since we knew the school year would be lengthened. (Something having to do with teacher/administration disagreements?) We can all agree that our class had the most cases of sudden "senioritis". The junior prom and mid-week trips to the beach added to the anticipation of soon becoming seniors, which culminated in our class trip to Hampton Beach and Canobie Lake Park.

At last we were seniors. We were appointed captains and editors and truly were a part of the school. The first day was a little rocky . . . new schedule and new parking lot, but we knew that it would be the best year yet. Senior privileges of talking in studies and using the links were just a few of the many goals we had achieved. We had the appearance of knowing where to go and what to do, and we were looked upon as the upperclassmen.

Though we all will be going our separate ways, each of us will always carry memories of Sharon High School down which ever path we choose. We all made choices that led us to where we are and where we will be, and the Sharon High School experience will always help to guide us in whatever lies ahead.

"Look to the classmate on the left . . . and the classmate on the right . . . Can you actually believe some of you will be seeing each other for the last time?" It seemed like it would have been an eternity. Who would have thought an eternity would be cut so short?

dedication

He was always a gentleman, looking over his shoulder as he went through the double doors to hold them open for those behind him, or rushing to pick up the books of any one of us who may have clumsily dropped them. He planted flowers each year outside the school's entrance, shared his love of writing by working after school with the Euphony staff. He read books out loud for the blind and took his students on mountain hikes. Our final year at Sharon High, while a positive one in so many ways, had one immeasurable negative, the fact that after thirty-four years of teaching in Sharon, Ernest Blake had retired. He couldn't be with us to share the pleasures of our senior year, but he will be with us, in our thoughts and memory. We therefore dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Ernest Blake as a symbol of our love, appreciation, and gratitude to a man who made Sharon High School a richer, more rewarding place to learn and grow in.

dedication and appreciation

appreciation

There is one lady in our school who can always be counted on to convey to those around her the idea that school is a place not only to grow in, but to enjoy, a warm and friendly place, much like a home. She was always in room 202 with candy for our coughs, M&M's for our sweet tooth, a smile or a hug, or anything else we might possibly need to help us make it through the school day. Our appreciation is extended to Mrs. Lillian Savage for being this special person, and for caring about us as if we were her own children. Thank you, Mrs. Savage, for your smile, support, and your love.

On Friday, May 13th, limo after limo arrived at the Newton Marriot promptly at 7:30 p.m. to be greeted by the seniors and the blazing light of the video camera. We danced to the rocking tunes played by KISS 108's D.J. Ed McMahon. Following dinner, Alison Neuman, Laurie Neiman, Leora Radding, and Amy Kafka, along with the prom queen, Pam Fredman, and prom king, Robbie Bessler were chosen. The prom was a commemoration of our junior year and a celebration of the senior year to come. To sum it up we "Had the Time of Our Lives".

After our last final, we took off for a day at Hampton Beach, and an evening at Canobie Lake Park. It was an afternoon we'd never forget. The sun was hot, the water was cold, but we were having fun. After buying out the shops on the boardwalk, we headed for Canobie Lake Park, where the fun continued on into the evening. This was the last time we were to be together as underclassmen, and it was a memorable one.

Along the way the team compiled a 21-0 record, winning the Hockomock League hands down. This year the team hopes to repeat their success one more time with a promising core of returning seniors including: Rob Bessler, David Katz, Steve Kritzman, and Josh Wolkon.

The girls were able to achieve a 500 record under the examples set by Dorene Doo, Brooke Wexler, Gabriel Phillips, Geetha Mathews and Shari Cook. The boys were led by Lew Segall, Brian Kates, Jason Gould and John Douglas. Enthusiasm and team unity will be the key components in the coming season's success.

The 1988 season was a tough one, yet the team managed to improve its record from the previous year, after having lost several productive players. Both of our coaches, Jim Regan and Charles Egan, made the season both enjoyable and memorable. The captain and only senior, Mary Anthony, will be difficult to replace as she abandons her catcher's equipment and graduates. The five surviving Juniors Debbie and Amy Margolis, Cathy Crehan, Carol Lemovitz, and Kristen Mobilia will return in 1989 to lead the underclassmen to a winning season.

The 1988 Varsity Baseball Team failed to reach the state tournament by losing a heartbreaking game to Oliver Ames, on the final day of the season. This brought their record to eleven wins and nine losses. The 1989 Eagles will have a strong core of seniors led by tri-captains Larry Yaffe, Erik Brenner, and Khai Tran. They hope to bring the Hockomock League title back to Sharon High. Other returning seniors are: Mark Gilman, Dana Scneider, Mark Catherall, Joe Costello, and Doug Tuck. At the helm once again will be the successful Coach Peckham.

The 1988 Sharon Golf Team finished the season with a 4-8-4 record. The team was led by Juniors: Jon Winn, Charlie Haner, and Stephen Faberman. Josh Fine and Kevin Brown also made outstanding contributions. They helped to build and strengthen what ooks like a promising 1989 Golf team. If this team does as well as we expect, they could go as far as the 1965 Sharon team, who won the League Title with a record of 6-2. We are looking forward to victory in "89".

Led by tri-captains Rob Bessler, Glenn Nathan, and Lewis Segall, the Boys Varsity Soccer Team compiled a 7-9 record. Playing forward were: Dean Jacobs, Rob Bessler, the leading scorer with 9 goals and 8 assists, Michael Berry, and Lewis Segall, who provided able backing in the midfield. Supplying defense for goalkeeper Scott Andrade were: Jeff Miller, David Harrild, Eric Rowse, Dana Rabinovitz, and Glenn Nathan. The team played with class, committment, and a desire to win under the guidance of Coach Alan Howie

girls soccer

Second season for the Girls soccer team has come to an end. The Girls soccer team had a productive year, mproving from its previous performance to a 6-8-2 record.

The successful season was directly related to a great defense played by Carol Lemovitz, Kristen Mobilia, hannon Mackay, Molly Johnson, Stephanie Weinstein, Jill Bjorkholm and Kyra Myerson. The forwards, Dawn Mali, Keryn Goldstein, and Bethann Barry, put a lot of pressure on the opposing defenses; and of course, there vere the half-backs, Jennifer Houston, Amy Cohen and Amy Lieberman, who spent most of the games running rom one end of the field to the other, lending a strong hand to the defense.

The team will lose three starters next year, but the new captains, Amy Cohen, Molly Johnson, Shannon Mackay and Dawn Mali, will work hard to hopefully lead an even more successful season. The Seniors wish good luck to Mr. A., next year's captains, and to the rest of the team.

The cross-country teams achieved an outstanding record against a tough field of competitors. After a slow start the girls team sprinted to a strong finish with a 5-4 record. Outstanding contributors to the team's success were seniors: Brooke Wexler, Dorene Doo, Gabriele Phillips, Shari Cook, and Geetha Matthew. The boys team, after a strong start faltered slightly in midseason, but bounced back with a vengeance to redeem themselves with a third place finish. The team was led to a 6-3 record by seniors: Brian Kates, John Douglas, Bill Murphy, Doug Tuck, Larry Yaffe, Erik Brenner, and Aaron Grossman

The 1988 Sharon High Varsity Field Hockey team had their strongest season in many years. With 18 returning players they were able to stay at the top of the league. Scoring credit goes to seniors amy Margolis and Amy Macdonald, who received strong backing from Cathy Crehan and Natalie Fleishman. An impenetrable defensive line, led by seniors Debbie Margolis, Julie Chipman, and alison Antonitis proved that the Eagles never stop fighting. In the cage, goalkeeper Amy Rogers had an incredible season, without her the team would have been lost. Thanks and Appreciation are given to Coach Decas and everyone who supported us. We look forward to another winning season next year.

Football

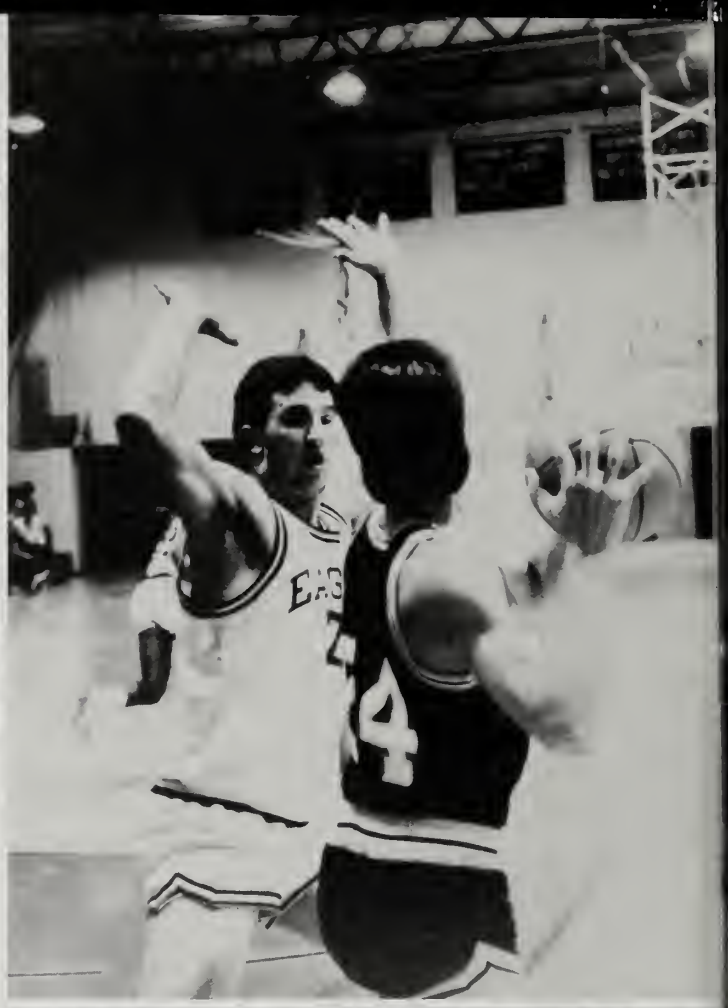
Although the 1988 football season was not one of our most winning seasons, many of the games were filled with memorable moments. Along with a fine nucleus of seniors, the team was backed by an excellent blend of underclassmen who meshed well together to form a strong cohesive team.

Led by senior quad-captains: Dana Schneider, Rich McCaffrey, Jason Gou d, and All-Hockomock League team member Mark Gilman, and seniors: Scott Magit, Brian Cooper, Joe Levy and Aaron Salkin, the team set a precedent of hard work and dedication for the underclassmen to follow in years to come.



After an uneven start the Varsity Basketball Team seems to be settling into a winning groove. Under the watchful eye and experienced guidance of Coach Cronin, Co-Captains Mark Catherall and Dana Schneider have sparked the team to strong competitive play. Robert Bessler, Josh Wolkon, and Larry Yaffe have also made strong team efforts. With a number of excellent juniors and sophomores returning next year, the Eagles took to be a strong and forceful foe.

This year's Girls Varsity Basketball team is basically the same as the 1988 squad. Heading the team are Co-captains Kathy Crehan and Kristen Mobilia. Filling the rest of the positions are Amy Cohen, Susan Slater, Lisa Taubman, Rebecca Weiner, Keryn Goldstein, Danielle Mogolesko, Kelly O'Shea, and Aayron Kay.

This year's team is strong, having played together to form a cohesive unit last season. The girls have been strong and competitive, playing close games (winning and losing by small margins). Everyone on the team agrees that this is the best season we have had in a long time.

The Seniors wish good luck to next year's team. Go Eagles!!

As we entered the parking lot, we were greeted by two not so friendly policemen and two very cute chipmunks. This began Halloween Dress-up Day 1988. Walking through the halls, we could see a six pack of diet coke, a train, several graduates, a cat in a hat, Freddy Kruger, and a few rabbits. Interrupted only by a freak fire alarm, the day concluded with a spirited assembly.

homecoming 88

Homecoming was a great success, although we lost the game, each class showed their spirit through their hard work on their float. There were two football players, a can of Raid, and a hornet. The seniors won the float contest with the juniors right behind them. At half time the senior home-coming queen, Leora Radding, and the senior court: Alison Neuman, Lauren Goldberg, Pam Fredman, and Marni Modelevsky, were presented with flowers as was the underclass court. That night everyone let all of their tensions out at the Hawaiian Homecoming Dance sponsored by the seniors.

All four classes assembled in the gym, that had been decorated in maroon and gold, to participate in the annual Thanksgiving game pep rally. The seniors defeated the underclassmen by demonstrating their outstanding spirit. The football players were introduced, the cheerleaders and the pep band performed, with the hope that today's enthusiasm would lead to tomorrow's victory.

Aristophanes's not Alfred Hitchcock's the Birds was this year's Dramatics Club fall presentation. Two exiled men, Pithetairos and Euelpides, deserted their native land to avoid taxation and stumbled upon the mystical land of the birds, Cloudcuckooland. They encountered a jackdaw, the Nightingale, the birds beloved leader, Koryphaios, a mathematician, Meton, Parricide and an Informer. With the help of the birds these two men plan to overthrow the golds on Delphi. Miraculously, this feat is accomplished and the Birds become the new gods of the land. The kingdom of Cloudcockooland lives on.
